

GRADE 6

Strong reading skills are the foundation learning!

Is your child struggling with reading comprehension, fluency, or vocabulary?

Brighterly's expert reading tutors make lessons fun, personalized, and effective - whether your child is just starting out or ready to level up their literacy skills.

From phonics to reading confidence, we're here to help your child love reading - and get better at it every day.

Why Learn with Brighterly? ✨

Assessment-Based Learning

Custom Curriculum

Homework Support

Engaging Platform

Part 1: Multiple Choice – Choose the Point of View

 Read each passage. Then choose the correct point of view.

Q1: I grabbed my backpack and rushed out the door. I didn't want to miss the bus again. My mom yelled something from the kitchen, but I was already gone. I knew today would be different. I could feel it.

- A. First-Person
- B. Second-Person
- C. Third-Person Limited
- D. Third-Person Omniscient

Q2: You walk into the bakery and smell fresh bread. You see cookies on the shelves and your mouth waters. You reach for a chocolate chip cookie, but the baker smiles and says, "They're still warm." You smile back and thank her. What a perfect day!

- A. First-Person
- B. Second-Person
- C. Third-Person Limited
- D. Third-Person Omniscient

Q3: Sam looked out the window, watching the storm. He felt nervous about the soccer game getting canceled. His sister, Claire, read quietly on the couch. She didn't mind the rain at all. She thought rainy days were perfect for books.

- A. First-Person
- B. Second-Person
- C. Third-Person Limited
- D. Third-Person Omniscient

Q4: She walked quickly through the hallway, hoping no one would notice her. She was nervous about the big test. Her teacher smiled and said, "You'll do great." She gave a tiny smile in return and sat at her desk, trying to calm her nerves.

- A. First-Person
- B. Second-Person
- C. Third-Person Limited
- D. Third-Person Omniscient

Q5: We all cheered when the team won the game. I had never seen the coach smile that big. Our hard work had finally paid off. We couldn't wait to tell everyone at school. That was the best championship ever!

- A. First-Person
- B. Second-Person
- C. Third-Person Limited
- D. Third-Person Omniscient

Part 2: Short Answer

Q6: What pronouns are commonly used in the first-person point of view?

---

Q7: Why might an author choose to use third-person omniscient in a story?

---

---

Q8: Rewrite this third-person sentence in first-person:
"She didn't want to go to the party because she didn't know anyone."

---

Q9: Rewrite this first-person sentence in third-person:
"I couldn't believe I had forgotten my homework again!"

---

Q10: Rewrite this third-person sentence in first-person:
"Ella watched the clock and hoped class would end soon."

---

✓ Right Answers

Part 1: Multiple Choice – Choose the Point of View

 Read each passage. Then choose the correct point of view.

Q1: I grabbed my backpack and rushed out the door. I didn't want to miss the bus again. My mom yelled something from the kitchen, but I was already gone. I knew today would be different. I could feel it.

- A. First-Person
- B. Second-Person
- C. Third-Person Limited
- D. Third-Person Omniscient

Answer: A. First-Person (Uses "I" and shows the narrator's personal thoughts.)

Q2: You walk into the bakery and smell fresh bread. You see cookies on the shelves and your mouth waters. You reach for a chocolate chip cookie, but the baker smiles and says, "They're still warm." You smile back and thank her. What a perfect day!

- A. First-Person
- B. Second-Person
- C. Third-Person Limited
- D. Third-Person Omniscient

Answer: B. Second-Person (Uses "you"; talks directly to the reader.)

Q3: Sam looked out the window, watching the storm. He felt nervous about the soccer game getting canceled. His sister, Claire, read quietly on the couch. She didn't mind the rain at all. She thought rainy days were perfect for books.

- A. First-Person
- B. Second-Person
- C. Third-Person Limited
- D. Third-Person Omniscient

Answer: D. Third-Person Omniscient (Shows thoughts of both Sam and Claire.)

Q4: She walked quickly through the hallway, hoping no one would notice her. She was nervous about the big test. Her teacher smiled and said, "You'll do great." She gave a tiny smile in return and sat at her desk, trying to calm her nerves.

- A. First-Person
- B. Second-Person
- C. Third-Person Limited
- D. Third-Person Omniscient

Answer: C. Third-Person Limited (Focuses only on one character's thoughts.)

Q5: We all cheered when the team won the game. I had never seen the coach smile that big. Our hard work had finally paid off. We couldn't wait to tell everyone at school. That was the best championship ever!

- A. First-Person
- B. Second-Person
- C. Third-Person Limited
- D. Third-Person Omniscient

Answer: A. First-Person (Uses "we" and "I"; narrator is part of the story.)

Part 2: Short Answer

Q6: What pronouns are commonly used in the first-person point of view?

I, me, my, we, us, our

Q7: Why might an author choose to use third-person omniscient in a story?

Answer may vary

An author might use third-person omniscient to show what all the characters are thinking and feeling. This helps the reader understand more than one point of view and know things the characters may not know about each other.

Q8: Rewrite this third-person sentence in first-person:

"She didn't want to go to the party because she didn't know anyone."

I didn't want to go to the party because I didn't know anyone.

Q9: Rewrite this first-person sentence in third-person:

"I couldn't believe I had forgotten my homework again!"

She couldn't believe she had forgotten her homework again!

Q10: Rewrite this third-person sentence in first-person:

"Ella watched the clock and hoped class would end soon."

"I watched the clock and hoped class would end soon."