GRADE 5

Strong reading skills are the foundation learning!

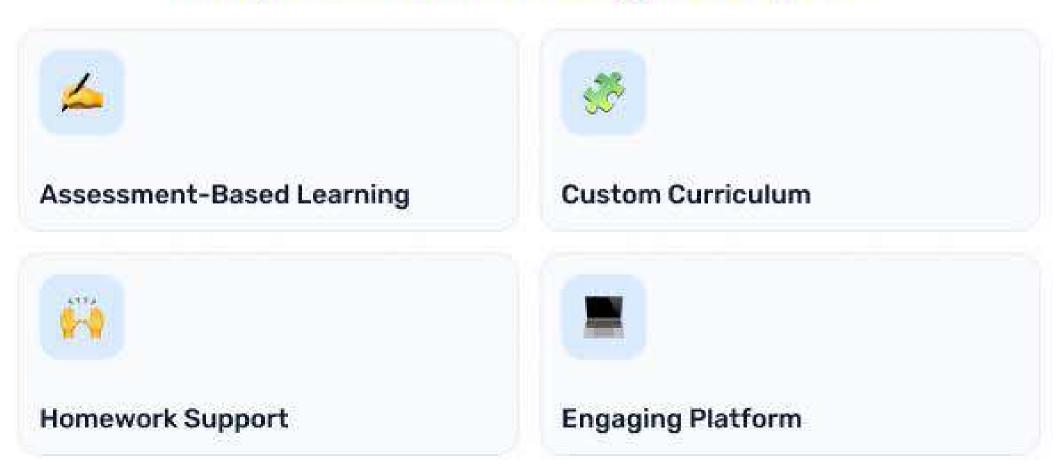

Is your child struggling with reading comprehension, fluency, or vocabulary?

Brighterly's expert reading tutors make lessons fun, personalized, and effective - whether your child is just starting out or ready to level up their literacy skills.

From phonics to reading confidence, we're here to help your child love reading - and get better at it every day.

Why Learn with Brighterly?

Multiple Choice

Read each text and choose the correct narrator's point of view.

- Q1: I couldn't believe what I saw when I opened the door. There was a puppy sitting right on the porch wagging its tail!
- A. First-person
- B. Second-person
- C. Third-person limited
- D. Third-person omniscient
- Q2: You walk into the kitchen and see a cake on the table. What do you do next?
- A. First-person
- B. Second-person
- C. Third-person objective
- D. Third-person limited
- Q3: Sara watched the rain fall outside. She felt gloomy because the picnic was canceled.
- A. Third-person objective
- B. Third-person omniscient
- C. Third-person limited
- D. First-person
- Q4: The teacher handed out the test. No one knew what she was thinking as she smiled.
- A. Third-person objective
- B. Third-person omniscient
- C. Third-person limited
- D. First-person

Q5: The dragon flew over the mountains. In the village, both the knigh and the wizard feared what would come next.
A. Third-person limited
B. First-person
C. Third-person omniscient
D. Second-person
i Identify the Point of View
Write the type of narrator's point of view used in each sentence.
Choose from: First-person, Second-person, Third-person objective, Third-person limited, Third-person omniscient.
Q6: He walked into the room and glanced around. No emotions showed on his face.
Q7: I was nervous before my big speech, but I knew I had to do my best
Q8: IYou turn the page and discover a hidden message written in red ink.
Q9: Maya felt proud of her science project, but her partner, Led worried they would run out of time.

Q10: James opened the book and started reading. The librarian watched quietly from her desk.

Bonus Question: Short Response

Q11: Why is it important to understand the narrator's point of view when reading a story?

Right Answers

Read each text and choose the correct narrator's point of view.

- Q1: I couldn't believe what I saw when I opened the door. There was a puppy sitting right on the porch wagging its tail!
- A. First-person
- B. Second-person
- C. Third-person limited
- D. Third-person omniscient
- Q2: You walk into the kitchen and see a cake on the table. What do you do next?
- A. First-person
- B. Second-person
- C. Third-person objective
- D. Third-person limited
- Q3: Sara watched the rain fall outside. She felt gloomy because the picnic was canceled.
- A. Third-person objective
- B. Third-person omniscient
- C. Third-person limited
- D. First-person
- Q4: The teacher handed out the test. No one knew what she was thinking as she smiled.
- (A.) Third-person objective
- B. Third-person omniscient
- C. Third-person limited
- D. First-person

- Q5: The dragon flew over the mountains. In the village, both the knight and the wizard feared what would come next.
- A. Third-person limited
- B. First-person
- C. Third-person omniscient
- D. Second-person

i Identify the Point of View

Write the type of narrator's point of view used in each sentence.

Choose from: First-person, Second-person, Third-person objective, Third-person limited, Third-person omniscient.

Q6: He walked into the room and glanced around. No emotions showed on his face.

Third-person objective - Only actions are described; no thoughts are shared.

Q7: I was nervous before my big speech, but I knew I had to do my best.

First-person - Uses "I" and tells the story from the narrator's personal view.

Q8: IYou turn the page and discover a hidden message written in red ink.

Second-person - Uses "you" and puts the reader into the story.

Q9: Maya felt proud of her science project, but her partner, Leo, worried they would run out of time.

Third-person omniscient - Shows thoughts of both Maya and Leo.

Topic: Point of view worksheets (Grade 5)

Q10: James opened the book and started reading. The librarian watched quietly from her desk.

Third-person objective - Tells what characters do, not what they think or feel.

Bonus Question: Short Response

Q11: Why is it important to understand the narrator's point of view when reading a story?

Answer:

Understanding the narrator's point of view helps readers know whose thoughts and feelings are being shared. It also helps us understand the story better and see how different characters experience events.